

be used, though the old books may be used for reference. All of the supervisors of election shall sign their names to the books which contain the names copied from the original registration books for such polling places and shall duly certify that said set of books, so copied, contain all of the names and other entries of persons entitled to vote in such precinct, or subdivision of any such precinct. Said certificate shall appear on the blank line or lines next following the last name in each letter of the alphabetical list of names in the new books so transcribed and said certificate shall be attested by the clerk to the Board of Supervisors. The law with respect to notice of the location of polling places shall apply to those established under the provisions of this section. It shall be the duty of the Board of Supervisors to locate the polling places in any one precinct as close together as possible, so as to minimize any inconvenience to voters. For services rendered under this section the Board of Supervisors, its appointees, agents and employees shall be paid such additional compensation as the Mayor and Aldermen of Frederick may provide. All judges and clerks of election shall be paid the same compensation for their services as is now, or may hereafter be provided, by the Public General Laws of Maryland, for the payment of judges and clerks of election in State and county elections held in Frederick County, Maryland. All persons whose names have heretofore or may hereafter appear as qualified voters in the several precincts of the city, who have or may hereafter move from the precinct in which they were registered into another precinct of the city shall not be required to transfer, but shall be entitled to vote at all municipal elections in the precinct in which their names appear on the registration books as qualified voters. The judges and clerks appointed by the Board of Supervisors shall not be required to appear before the Board for the purpose of examination, but the Board of Supervisors before making any such appointments shall thoroughly inform themselves as to the qualifications of the persons appointed, provided however that all such judges and clerks of elections shall qualify before the Board of Supervisors as provided in this Article. All acts or parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this Act be and the same are hereby repealed, to the extent of such inconsistency.
