

and Councilmen shall serve for one year or until his, or their, successor, or successors, shall have qualified.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That, the said Mayor and Common Council, at their first meeting after they shall have been elected and qualified, shall elect a Clerk, who may or may not be a member of the Common Council, who shall keep a careful record of minutes and proceedings and ordinances, which shall be open to the inspection of all persons interested therein, and shall safely keep all records and documents, issue licenses, collect moneys therefor, and turn same over to the Town Treasurer. He shall also keep proper accounts as Clerk and shall perform such other duties as the Mayor and Common Council may assign to him. The Mayor and Common Council shall fix the amount and authorize the payment of the salary of said Clerk, and the said Clerk, shall, before assuming the duties of his office give bond for the faithful performance of his duties as such Clerk, in such sum as may be directed by the Mayor and Common Council. In the event of the death, resignation, or removal, of said Clerk from said town, or of his failure to serve, the Mayor and Common Council shall elect a successor to serve for the unexpired term.

SEC. 7. On the same day on which the Mayor and Common Council is to be elected under this Act, and on each and every first Monday in May in each and every year thereafter, one person, a legal voter in said town, and owner of real estate to the value of at least one thousand dollars, shall be chosen by the voters of said town as its treasurer, to serve for one year and until his or her successor shall qualify, but before said treasurer shall enter upon the duties assigned, he shall give bond payable to the Mayor and Common Council of Seat Pleasant, in such penalty as the Mayor and Common Council may fix, with securities to be approved by them, conditioned as they may direct and the said treasurer shall qualify and enter upon the duties of his office on or before the first Monday in June succeeding his election, and a failure to qualify within the time herein specified shall be deemed a refusal to accept the office, whereupon the Mayor and Common Council shall order a new election to fill the vacancy, such election to be held in the manner prescribed by Section 5 hereof. In the event of the death, resignation, inability to act or removal for cause of the treasurer by the Mayor and Common Council, it shall be its duty to appoint another treasurer under like con-
