

Register or some other newspaper published in said town, at least four days prior to the time of the holding of said convention, giving the time and place thereof, which said convention shall be held not later than one week prior to the date of election. Said convention shall nominate not less than one nor more than two candidates for Burgess, and in the year 1932 not less than three nor more than six candidates for Commissioners to hold office for a term of two years, and not less than two nor more than four candidates for Commissioners to hold office for a period of one year, and in the year 1933 said convention shall nominate not less than one nor more than two candidates for Burgess and not less than two candidates nor more than four candidates for Commissioners, and the same number for each office shall be nominated each second year thereafter. And in the year 1934 said convention shall nominate not less than one nor more than two candidates for Burgess, and not less than three nor more than six candidates for Commissioners, and the same number shall be nominated each second year thereafter, to be voted upon at the elections in said years. Each aspirant for the office of Burgess, and each aspirant for the office of Commissioner in said town who shall not have been nominated by said convention may file with the Register not later than four days before the election, nominating papers for the office or offices for which they may be aspiring, in writing, signed by at least forty of the qualified voters of said town, and no signature shall be counted if it shall appear upon the nomination papers of more than one candidate for the office of Burgess, and more than three candidates, or two candidates in the succeeding second years hereinbefore mentioned, for the office of Commissioner. It shall be the duty of the Register of said town to have prepared for said election a ballot to be voted thereat, containing the names of persons nominated by the nominating convention, and the persons nominated by filing nominating papers, as aforesaid, and the ballot shall be prepared and printed under the direction and supervision of the Register of said town, and shall be supplied at the election to voters desiring to vote, and said ballots shall be official ballots, and shall not be distributed except to the voters as they present themselves to the election officials on the day of the election, and said ballots shall be immediately used by the voter, and shall not be removed from the voting room except after they are counted by the election officials, and no other ballots shall be used, or permitted to be used at said election, although specimen ballots may be printed by the Register, or