

day in June or until their successors shall be elected, or appointed and qualified as herein provided. In case any person elected Commissioner shall fail to qualify within thirty (30) days after his election as Commissioner, or in case of any vacancy by death, resignation, removal from said town, or otherwise, the remaining Commissioners shall fill such vacancy by the appointment of a resident who shall possess the same qualifications as prescribed for Commissioners in Section 4 of this Act, who shall hold office for such term or unexpired term. All vacancies in the Board of Commissioners caused by absences from its session for more than three consecutive months without excuse satisfactory to the remaining Commissioners shall be filled by the remaining Commissioners in the same manner as provided in this section for filling vacancies due to other causes. The Commissioners shall serve without pay and shall at their first meeting after election elect one of their number to be chairman of the Board of Commissioners. They shall pass rules and by-laws for their own government while in session.

SEC. 8. And be it further enacted, That the Commissioners shall meet in some convenient place in said town on the third Tuesday in June succeeding their election, and from time to time thereafter as occasion may require, or upon the call of the chairman; not less, however, than once in every month.

SEC. 9. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners shall annually appoint a treasurer, who shall also act as clerk for said Commissioners, and who, in addition to his or her duties as treasurer, shall keep the minutes of their proceedings in a well-bound book, which shall be open to the inspection of all qualified voters of said town, and said clerk shall perform such other duties as the Commissioners may assign to him or her.

SEC. 10. And be it further enacted, That the Commissioners shall annually appoint one or more bailiffs for said town, who are hereby declared to have and are vested with all the powers of a constable of Prince George's County within the said town limits, and who shall perform such duties as may be required of them by the said Commissioners, and who shall preserve the peace and good order in said town.

SEC. 11. And be it further enacted, That the Commissioners shall establish a reasonable salary or compensation for
