CHAPTER 208.

AN ACT to prohibit horses, cattle, sheep or swine, from running at large on the public roads or streets in the Village of Unionville, Frederick County, Maryland, and on the public roads within one mile of the Methodist Episcopal Church in said village.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That it shall not be lawful for horses, cattle, sheep or swine, to run at large in or on any of the public roads or streets in the Village of Unionville, in Frederick County, Maryland, or in or on any of the public roads of said county, or of the State of Maryland, within one mile of the Methodist Episcopal Church in said village.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That any and every person, or persons, owning said animals or any of them mentioned in the preceding section, who shall permit said animals, or any of them, to run at large on any of the public roads or streets mentioned in the preceding section shall be fined not less than one dollar nor more than five dollars for each offense, on conviction before any justice of the peace of said county, and on failure or refusal to pay said fine and the costs of prosecution to the justice of the peace before whom said person shall be so convicted, shall be committed to the jail of said county and confined therein for not less than five days nor more than thirty days; provided, that any person so convicted shall have the right of appeal to the Circuit Court for said county upon giving bond in a sum to be fixed by said justice sufficient to secure the payment of said fine and costs and the probable costs in said court, conditioned that if the party ap-
