

the Board of County Commissioners for Frederick County for the purpose of redeeming the outstanding bonds heretofore issued under the authority of the following chapters: Chapter 125 of the Acts of 1910, $75,000.00; Chapter 404 of the Acts of 1912, $75,000.00; Chapter 359 of the Acts of 1914, $36,000.00.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That the County Commissioners for Frederick County shall cause to be levied and collected from the assessable property of Frederick County such taxes as may be sufficient to pay for the interest on the outstanding bonds issued in pursuance of this Act as the same may fall due and also such further additional sums as may be required to retire and redeem said bonds when and as the same shall mature, until all of them shall have been retired. And said taxes shall be collected in like manner as other taxes levied in Frederick County are collected and when collected shall be applied to the payment of the interest on outstanding bonds, and for the redemption of the same as they may mature and become payable.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That said bonds shall be sold after three weeks advertisement by the County Commissioners to the highest bidder or bidders, provided, however, that none of said bonds shall be sold for less than par value.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That said Board of County Commissioners for Frederick County are hereby authorized in their discretion, to advertise for bids and sell said bonds, if and when it is to the best interest of Frederick County that the same be done.

SEC. 7. And be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency law and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety, and being passed upon by a yea and nay vote, supported by three-fifths of all of the members elected to each of the two Houses of the General Assembly, the same shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 6, 1931.
