

CHAPTER 233.

AN ACT to repeal Section 16 of Chapter 200 of the Acts of Assembly of Maryland of 1916, and to re-enact the same with amendments. Said re-enacted section being a part of the Charter of the Mayor and Common Council of Mount Rainier, and relating to the designation of police justices and the compensations of police justices and town bailiffs, etc.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 16 of Chapter 200 of the Acts of Assembly of Maryland of 1916, be, and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, so as to read as follows:

16. That any Justice of the Peace for Prince George's County, resident in the town of Mount Rainier who may be designated by the Mayor and Common Council as a Police Justice, is hereby declared to be a conservator of the peace of said town, and it shall be his duty to order the arrest of any person found by him violating any ordinance or regulation made by the Mayor and Common Council. Upon complaint made to any said Justice of the Peace of the violation of any such ordinance or regulation, said Justice shall issue process in the name of the Mayor and Common Council of Mount Rainier against the party offending and shall try and determine the matter in the same manner as is provided in the Code of Public General Laws of this State, and shall receive the same fees therefor or such other compensation payable out of the town funds as may be prescribed by the Mayor and Common Council. In default of payment of any fine or penalty imposed by such Justice of the Peace for the violation of any such ordinance or regulation, the Justice of the Peace determining such case may commit the party fined in accordance with the provisions of Section 15, and in all cases the town officers duly appointed shall have similar powers, proceed in a similar manner and receive the same fees as constables now receive in similar cases in which the State of Maryland is a party, or such other compensation payable out of town funds as may be prescribed by the Mayor and Common Council. All warrants sworn out in the name of the Mayor and Common Council of Mount Rainier shall be amendable at any time
