

Maryland of 1902, Chapter 73, and that the sum of money required to reduce and pay the balance of said bonds remaining due after the application of the proceeds of sale from the bonds herein authorized shall be paid out of the sinking fund of the corporation on hand at the time of redeeming said bonds.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That the Burgess and Commissioners of Middletown shall have full power and authority, and it is required to levy all necessary taxes upon the property within the taxable limits of said corporation for the payment of interest on the bonds hereby authorized to be issued, and for the payment of the principal of said bonds as they mature, or shall provide for a sinking fund for the liquidation of said bonds at maturity.

Approved April 17, 1931.

---

CHAPTER 269.

AN ACT to add one new section to Article 11 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland (1930 Edition), title "Frederick County," sub-title "Treasurer," said section to be known as Section 821A, and to follow immediately after Section 821 of said Article, for the purpose of providing additional clerical aid in the office of the Treasurer for Frederick County.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That one new section be and it is hereby added to Article 11 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland (1930 Edition), title "Frederick County," sub-title "Treasurer," said new section to be known as 821A, to follow immediately after Section 821 of said Article and to read as follows:

821A. The said Treasurer is hereby authorized to appoint such additional clerk or clerks, as he may find necessary to conduct said office efficiently, in addition to the clerks provided by Sections 820 and 821, at a compensation not to exceed one thousand four hundred dollars ($1,400.00) per annum, as salary or salaries to said additional clerk or clerks; and the County Commissioners are hereby authorized and directed to levy one thousand four hundred dollars ($1,400.00) annually and