

Section 335, and, to the extent necessary, by a levy annually against all taxable property in the water, sewerage or drainage sub-district as hereinbefore provided for such amount, less the connection charges and front foot assessments on hand and/or estimated to be received during such year applicable to the payment of interest and retirement expenses, for all the bonds issued to defray the cost of the water, sewerage or drainage sub-district so improved or benefited, provided that in the event such sum so levied on the water, sewerage or drainage sub-district shall not provide a sufficient sinking fund to retire all such bonds as they mature, then the Commissioners shall levy annually against all taxable property in Baltimore County a sufficient sum to make up the deficiency. The Treasurer of Baltimore County is hereby required to collect the tax so levied, in the same manner as State and county taxes are collected, and such tax shall bear the same interest and be subject to the same penalties in the event of non-payment, as in the case of other county taxes. From the money so received, together with the amount in hand to the credit of said bond fund from the collections provided for in Section 9, the Commissioners shall first pay all interest on said bonds as it matures, and shall then deposit in some bank, or banks in Baltimore County to the credit of the Commissioners, as a fund to be known as the "Sinking Fund Account," the amount so raised for the payment of the principal of said bonds. The monies in the Sinking Fund shall be kept entirely separate from all other monies of the said Commissioners and of the county, and the said Commissioners shall invest the monies in the Sinking Fund in the purchase of any bonds issued under this Act when they are obtainable at not exceeding one point above the issue price or in bonds of the United States Government or of the State of Maryland; and bonds issued under this Act when purchased for the Sinking Fund shall not be cancelled and destroyed, but shall be immediately stamped to show that they belong to the Sinking Fund and shall be held and treated as other outstanding bonds bearing interest, and the interest thereon shall be paid into the Sinking Fund until their maturity and at maturity they shall be cancelled at the same time at which bonds of the same series outstanding in the hands of the public are paid. The Commissioners shall have power and authority to sell any United States or State of Maryland bonds at any time in the Sinking Fund in order to provide cash to pay any series of bonds issued under this Act as they mature or to purchase with the proceeds bonds issued under this Act whenever the Commissioners can in their judgment make such a change of investment advantageously. The provisions of this section shall not apply to the properties, plants, franchises, and/or rights of the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore or to any properties, plants, franchises and/or
