

the whole of said bonds shall have been paid, and the date of issue shall be the same on all bonds under this Act, which date shall be May 1, 1931, and the same shall be advertised by the Commissioners of Oxford upon such notice as they may deem advisable, and sold to the highest bidder for cash, provided the same shall not be sold for less than their par value and accrued interest.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That for the purpose of redeeming said bonds at maturity and for the purpose of securing prompt payment of the interest thereon, the Commissioners of Oxford shall levy annually upon the assessable property of the town of Oxford a tax for such sum or sums as may be necessary to pay said bonds as they shall severally mature and to pay also any and all interest on all of said bonds and when the same shall become due and payable, as hereinbefore provided.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall not become effective unless at a special election to be held in the town of Oxford on a date to be fixed by the Commissioners of said town, which election shall be conducted in all respects as regular elections in the town of Oxford are conducted, there shall be cast a majority of votes in favor of the water extension loan as provided in this Act, and that at said election the question of the approval or disapproval of the provisions of this Act shall be submitted to the qualified voters of the said town of Oxford, as follows: namely: That on the ballots provided by the Commissioners of Oxford at said election there shall be printed the words "For Oxford Water Bond Issue of 1931" and "Against Oxford Water Bond Issue of 1931," with a square after said words, in each case, for the (X) mark of the voter, and the voter may vote thereon by an (X) mark after his choice, and if there be a majority of votes cast in favor of said loan, then this Act and the provisions thereof shall go into effect immediately, and if there be a majority of votes cast against said loan, then this Act shall be null and void, except as hereinafter provided.

In the event that a majority of votes cast at the special election as provided for in this Act shall be against said loan, then the Commissioners of Oxford shall submit the water extension loan herein proposed in the same manner and under the authority of this Act at the next regular municipal election to be held in said town in the same manner and method as hereinbefore provided.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency law and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety, and having
