

party in interest, or on its own motion, require the claimant to appear before an arbitration committee appointed by it and consisting of one representative of employes, one representative of employers, and either a member of the Commission or a person specially deputed by the Commission to act as chairman, before which the evidence in regard to the claim shall be adduced and by which it shall be considered and reported upon with the right of either party to appeal to the Commission from the finding of said arbitration committee on all questions of law and fact. If changes of circumstances warrant an increase or rearrangement of compensation, like application shall be made. No increase or rearrangement shall be operative for any period prior to application therefor. At any time after a claim for compensation under this Article has been filed with the State Industrial Accident Commission by any claimant, the said claimant and/or his or her dependents may, with the approval of the State Industrial Accident Commission, enter into an agreement with the employer or insurer of such employer providing for a final compromise and settlement of any and all claims which the said employee or his or her dependents might then or thereafter have under the provisions of this Article, upon such terms and conditions as the Commission shall, in its discretion, deem proper. Any such settlement when approved by the Commission shall be binding upon all parties thereto, and no such settlement shall be effective unless approved by the Commission.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect on June 1st, 1931.
