

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That in order to meet the indebtedness incurred under the foregoing section, the Mayor and Common Council shall levy annually a tax of ten (10) cents per one hundred ($100.00) dollars for four years. Said tax to be levied and collected as other town taxes, and to be shown upon tax bills separately in a column provided for that purpose.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall not become effective unless and until it shall be submitted to the qualified voters living within the limits of the said Town of Riverdale as the same exists at the time of submission, and accepted by a majority of said voters. For such purpose a referendum shall be held by the Mayor and Common Council at an election to be fixed by it not later than the first Monday in May, 1931. Said referendum shall be conducted under the provisions of existing law for the election of town officers and the manner of submission of the question to the voters shall be that on the ballots to be used there shall be printed the words "For Purchase of Fire Engine and Equipment" with a blank square opposite at the right, and the words "Against Purchase of Fire Engine and Equipment" with a blank square opposite at the right, and all qualified voters desiring to vote for the provisions of this Act shall place a cross mark in the square opposite the words "For Purchase of Fire Engine and Equipment" and all qualified voters desiring to vote against the provisions of this Act shall place a cross mark in the square opposite the words "Against Purchase of Fire Engine and Equipment." If at such election a greater number of persons shall vote "For Purchase of Fire Engine and Equipment" than shall vote "Against Purchase of Fire Engine and Equipment" then the provisions of the foregoing sections shall become operative and in full force and effect.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency law and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety, and being passed upon a yea and nay vote, supported by three-fifths of all members elected at each of the two Houses of the General Assembly, the same shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 17, 1931.
