

(c) It shall be unlawful for any person to use patent twine weirs, or other twine weirs, pound nets and hauling seine of greater length than 350 feet, in Fishing Bay, Honga River, Black Water River and its tributaries (except Little Blackwater River), Little Coptank River and its tributaries (except Oyster Creek or Bay); or to fasten or stick stakes in that part of Blackwater River lying between a line drawn from Grog Point to the opposite side of the river and a line drawn from Berge's Ditch to the opposite side of the river, except in the bends of the river where stake weirs now exist.

(d) It shall be unlawful for any person to use gill nets in the waters of Fishing Bay or Transquaking River north of a line drawn from Blackwater Point to Irish Creek, up the Transquaking River to Destroys Creek; or to set nets in the aforesaid waters whose farther end shall extend more than 300 yards from shore nor more than one-third of the breadth of the water at the place where the net may be fished, nor closer than 200 yards of each other in the Transquaking or Chicacomico River; or to set nets in the waters of the Transquaking and Chicacomico Rivers above Destroys Creek whose farther end shall extend not more than one-half the breadth of the water at the place where the net may be fished nor closer than 200 yards of each other; provided that no net shall be placed in or across the channels of the rivers, nor shall it be lawful in the waters of Fishing Bay south of a line drawn from Blackwater Point to Irish Creek and north of a line drawn from Roasting Ear Point to Duck Island Point to set any weir more than 400 yards from shore, or to set any kind of gill nets or weirs closer to each other than 400 yards; or to set any row of gill nets more than 400 yards in length; nor shall it be lawful in the waters of Fishing Bay south of the said line from Roasting Ear Point to Duck Island Point to set any weir beyond a depth of 18 feet in said waters.

(e) It shall not be lawful for any person to place any pound net, weir, or hedge in the northwest branch of the Nanticoke River, from Walnut Landing to the place known as Chimney Landing, on the west branch of said stream, at a distance less than one-third of a mile apart.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1931.

Approved April 17, 1931.
