CHAPTER 380.

AN ACT to add a new section to Article 56 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1929 Supplement), title "Licenses," sub-title "Freight Motor Vehicles," said new section to be known as Section 266A and to follow immediately after Section 266 of said Article, to permit farmers and others having general hauler's license to accommodate their neighbors by hauling certain farm products to markets.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That a new section be and it is hereby added to Article 56 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1929 Supplement), title "Licenses," sub-title "Freight Motor Vehicles," said new section to be known as Section 266A, to follow immediately after Section 266 of said Article, and to read as follows:

266A. Nothing in Sections 256 to 266, both inclusive, of this Article shall be construed to apply to farmers and others having general hauler's license, hauling certain farm products to markets for their neighbors, but all such farmers and others having general hauler's license shall be allowed to haul farm products, except milk, for their neighbors, when such hauling constitutes the first movement of said products from farm to market; provided, however, that no farmer or anyone having a general hauler's license shall so haul as aforementioned on regular schedule, except when transporting a seasonable product.

Nothing in this section shall be construed to affect in any manner any rights or privileges which farmers and others having a general hauler's license now or may hereafter have for the transportation of such products.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1931.

Approved April 17, 1931.
