of the corporation and of its right to exercise the powers contained in its charter.

(d)   The State Tax Commission shall promptly notify the Comptroller and the Treasurer of the receipt for record of all articles of revival.

(e)   Such revival of the charter of the corporation shall validate all contracts, acts, matters and things made, done and performed within the scope of its charter by such corporation, its officers and agents during the time when such charter was void, with the same force and effect and to all intents and purposes as if said charter had at all times remained in full force and effect; and all real and personal property, rights and credits of said corporation at the time its charter became void, and which were not disposed of prior to the time of such revival shall be vested in such corporation, after such revival, as fully and amply as they were held by said corporation at and before the time its charter became void, and said corporation after such revival shall be as exclusively liable for all contracts, acts, matters and things made, done or performed in its name and on its behalf by its officers and agents prior to such reinstatement, as if its charter had at all times remained in full force and effect.

SEC. 3.   And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect on June 1st, 1931.

Approved April 17, 1931.
