SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That the proceeds from the sale of said bonds after the payment of the cost of engraving, printing and lithographing together with all other incidental expenses connected with the issuance thereof shall be used and expended by said Board of County Commissioners for the purpose of refunding to the County Treasury the amount expended from the general funds of the county for the payment of the costs of maintaining and establishing said police force over and above the amount directly levied therefor.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1931.

Approved April 17, 1931.

CHAPTER 385.

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact with amendments Section 134 of Chapter 790 of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland, Session of 1912, as amended by Chapter 706 of the Acts of 1920, said section being designated as Section 204 of Article 16 of the Public Local Laws of Maryland, title "Montgomery County," sub-title "County Treasurer," in the codification of the said Public Local Laws, edited by Horace E. Flack, under the provisions of Chapter 193 of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland, Session of 1929, so as to provide for the collection and deposit of taxes by the county treasurer, the bond to be furnished by depositaries; to provide for the creation of a special interest fund and the allocation of said fund to the payment of certain county expenditures.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 134 of Chapter 790 of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland, Session of 1912, as amended by Chapter 706 of the Acts of 1920, said section being designated as Section 204 of Article 16 of the Public Local Laws of Maryland, title "Montgomery County," sub-title "County Treasurer," in the codification of the said Public Local Laws, edited by Horace E. Flack, under the provisions of Chapter 193 of the
