

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That the said Board of Education of Washington County shall award the contract for the erection of said addition provided for in this Act, and equipping the same, to the lowest responsible bidder therefor, after the said board shall have advertised for bids therefor, provided, however, that said board shall have the right to reject any or all bids. Said Board of Education shall require the successful bidder to whom said contract is awarded, to make a contract in writing for the faithful performance of his work, and said contractor shall agree in said contract to pay all laborers employed by him on said building, and for all materials used in the construction and equipping of the same, and shall give bond, acceptable to said board, for the faithful performance of his contract. The said Board of Education is hereby given full power and authority to employ an architect or architects and to do all things in connection with the construction and equipping of said building as may be necessary.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That the money arising from the sale of said bonds shall be deposited in a separate and special account in some bank or banks, savings institution or institutions or trust company or companies by the said board of Education of Washington County that will guarantee to pay interest on daily balances at the best rate obtainable, and the said money shall be paid out only on checks signed by the president of the said Board of Education of Washington County, countersigned by the Treasurer of said Board.

SEC. 7. And be it further enacted, That the provisions of this Act shall be construed as additional and supplementary to and not in substitution for or in conflict with any of the provisions of the General Laws of this State relating to public schools and the powers of the State Superintendent of Schools, in regard to the plans, construction and erection of public school buildings.

SEC. 8. And be it further enacted, That for the purpose of paying the interest on said bonds and for redeeming said bonds as they mature the said County Commissioners of Washington County shall annually, until all of said bonds issued under the authority of this Act shall mature and be redeemed, levy a tax upon the assessable property of said county sufficient to pay the annual interest on said bonds outstanding and to redeem said bonds as they mature and become due, said taxes
