

tural service, including the threshing or harvesting of crops, or who, at the time of the accident, are engaged in service incidental to and in connection with agricultural pursuits or developments, whether the employer be the farmer or other person undertaking or contracting with the farmer to perform any such agricultural service, pursuit or development. This Article shall not apply to cutters of cord wood or fire wood, farm laborers, domestic servants, nor to country blacksmiths, wheelwrights or similar rural employments, unless these employments elect to come under this Article as provided in Section 33, nor in any case where the accident occurred before this Act takes effect, nor to casual employees or any employees who are employed wholly without the State. But for all purposes of this Article, casual, occasional or incidental employments outside of this State by the Maryland employer of an employee or employees regularly employed by said employer within this State shall be construed to be employment within this State; provided, however, if an employee or the dependents of an employee shall receive compensation or damages under the laws of any other State, nothing herein contained shall be construed so as to permit a total compensation for the same injury greater than is provided for in this Article.

(4) "Employment" includes employment only in a trade, business or occupation carried on by the employer for pecuniary gain.

(5) "Compensation" means the money allowance payable to an employee or to his dependents as provided for in this Article, and includes funeral benefits provided therein.

(6) "Injury", "Personal Injury" and "Accidental Personal Injury" means only accidental injuries arising out of and in the course of employment and such disease or infection as may naturally result therefrom, and the occupational diseases specified and enumerated in Section 32A of this Article.

(7) "Death" when mentioned as a basis for the right to compensation means only death resulting from such injury.

(8) "Average weekly wages" for the purposes of this Article shall be taken to mean the average weekly wages earned by an employee when working on full time.

(9) "State Accident Fund" means the State Insurance Fund provided for in Section 16 of this Article.

(10) The term "child" and "children" shall include posthumous children and adopted children, whether members of the deceased employee's household at the time of his accident or death or not, and shall also include step-children, illegitimate children and other children, if such step-children, illegitimate children and other children were members of the household of the decedent at the time of the accident or death and
