

law in the year 1939, the Board of County Commissioners is hereby authorized, empowered and directed to publish weekly during the period of re-assessment any change made by the Commissioners in the proposed assessment made by the assessors appointed by the Board of County Commissioners to make the re-assessment of the taxable property of Montgomery County. Any change in the assessment shall be made by resolution of the Board, and shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the County, and shall include the assessment recommended by the assessors and the change made therein by the Board of County Commissioners, showing the assessment of the improvements and the assessment of the land, together with the several gradations thereof upon the acreage or square foot basis, together with a description of the property by name of the owner or owners thereof and its location, either by lot or block number, if in a subdivision, or by designation of its town or taxable area or its election district.

SEC. 2. After any piece of property has been re-assessed no change shall thereafter be made in the assessment thereof except by resolution of the Board of County Commissioners and such change shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the County, and shall include the former assessment and the change made therein by the Board of County Commissioners, showing the assessment of the improvements and the assessment of the land, together with the several gradations thereof upon the acreage or square foot basis, together with a description of the property by name of the owner or owners thereof and its location, either by lot and block number, if in a subdivision, or by designation of its town or taxable area or its election district.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency law and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety, and being passed upon a ye and nay vote, supported by three-fifths of all of the members of the two Houses of the General Assembly, the same shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved May 27, 1939.
