

years, the current assets, liabilities, reserves and surplus or deficit of the State, an itemized list of the debts and funds of the State, and an estimate of the financial condition of the State as of the beginning and end of each of the fiscal years next succeeding, including an itemized statement of the estimated revenues.

18. In the interest of economy and efficiency, it shall be the duty of the Director to make a complete survey of the operation and maintenance of all the departments, boards, commissions, bureaus, divisions, institutions or agencies of the State, in order to secure information upon which to base recommendations to the Governor as to the appropriations that will be needed for the maintenance and operation of all such agencies.

19. In connection with this study of the needs of the several departments, boards, commissions, bureaus, divisions, institutions and agencies of the State, the Director shall give careful attention to the administration, organization and duties of the same in order to ascertain whether there is any duplication or overlapping of work, duties or functions, and shall make reports and recommendations to the Governor for the reorganization or consolidation of any departments, boards, commissions, bureaus, divisions, institutions or agencies whenever in his opinion such reorganization or consolidation would result in economy or efficiency, or be to the best interests of the State.

20. The Director shall be subject to call by either House of the General Assembly or any committee thereof in order to supply any data or information in his possession.

21. Every amended budget schedule prepared by any department, board, commission, bureau, division, institution or agency of the State shall be submitted to the Director before being submitted to the Governor, and the recommendations of the Director shall be endorsed thereon or attached thereto before the same is submitted to the Governor.

Purchasing Bureau.

22. Upon the taking effect of this Act, the Director of Budget and Procurement shall exercise all of the powers and duties theretofore exercised by the Central Purchasing Bureau and the Purchasing Agent, and thereupon the Central Purchasing Bureau and the position of Purchasing Agent shall be abolished.
