

the difference between the amount of the purchase price of any piece or pieces of real estate so sold at tax sale and the taxes, interest, penalties and costs, and all accrued taxes, interest, penalties and costs on said real estate, due and payable to the said Hillside Commission.

Taxes on personal property shall be collected as is now provided by law for the collection of such taxes due Prince George's County.

Whenever any real estate shall have been bought in, as herein provided, by the Hillside Commission, at any tax sale made under the provisions of this Act, and the same shall not have been redeemed within the time provided for the redemption thereof, and not set aside by the Court for defects in the levying of such taxes, the said Hillside Commission, as an additional and cumulative means of enforcing the payment of taxes, interests, penalties and costs against real estate, which have accrued, or which shall thereafter accrue, and in no wise in derogation of the remedy hereby given may, within six (6) months after the time of redemption has expired, file a plenary proceeding in equity in the Circuit Court for Prince George's County, Maryland, to reaffirm and finally establish a lien upon said respective pieces of real estate so sold to it, for the taxes, interest, penalties and costs so assessed and charged against the same, and to obtain a decree for the enforcement thereof. The owner or owners of each piece of real estate upon which such taxes, interest, penalties and costs are sought to be enforced shall be made parties defendant in said suit, and if residents of the State of Maryland shall be personally served with process, and if non-residents shall be served with process by publication, as if provided by law.

The said Court is hereby given jurisdiction to hear and determine such causes, establish such liens, and decree the enforcement thereof. If said Court shall determine that said taxes were legally levied or made by said Hillside Commission, any defect or irregularity in the tax sale or in the proceeding upon the report thereof shall not be a defense to any of such suits. All such decrees shall be enforced in the same manner as decrees of said Court are authorized to be enforced by law.

(E) That said Town Treasurer shall make, at each regular monthly meeting of said Commission, a monthly written report to the Hillside Commission, which said report shall state, in itemized form, all receipts and disbursements of town money coming into his hands, which monthly report shall be signed and sworn to, as being a complete and accurate report, by said Town Treasurer before said Secretary Commissioner.
