

such new report or explanation and approve or disapprove of the same in the same manner as is provided for in Paragraphs F and G of this section.

(I) That if said Treasurer shall fail or neglect to make such regular monthly reports, or shall fail or neglect, upon the disapproval by said Commission of any such report, to make another and accurate report or explain satisfactorily to said Commission such part or parts of such report as shall have been disapproved by said Commission, or if said Town Treasurer shall otherwise fail or neglect diligently, faithfully and honestly to discharge all the duties of his office, including the duty of attending meeting of said Commission, said Commission may remove said Town Treasurer from the office of town Treasurer, and, by resolution entered in the minute books of said Commission, appoint another person to the office of Town Treasurer. Provided, however, that nothing contained in this paragraph shall in any wise affect the general power of said Commission to remove a person from the office of Town Treasurer as provided in Paragraph L of Section 3 of this Act; and provided, further, that nothing contained in this paragraph shall in any wise affect the liability of the person so removed from the office of Town Treasurer, or the liability of the surety or sureties on his bond.

(J) That the Town Treasurer shall attend all meetings of said Commission, and shall act as Clerk to said Commission, and shall keep the minutes of the same. Provided, however, that said Commission may, by resolution, appoint another person to keep such minutes whenever in the judgment of said Commission the welfare of said town requires such action; and, in making such appointment, said Commission may appoint one of its own members or other proper person.

SEC. 8. And be it further enacted:

(A) That the Hillside Commission shall have power to pass and enact such ordinances, consistent with law, as said Commission may deem proper for carrying into execution the provisions of this Charter, or for the good government, public health, safety and morals of said town. Provided, however, that no such ordinance or ordinances shall have any force or effect unless and until the same shall have been submitted to the registered voters of said town, at an annual or a special election called for that purpose, and the same shall have been adopted by a majority vote of said registered voters of said town at such election. Any such election for the adoption or rejection of any such ordinance or ordinances shall be conducted by the Board of Election Supervisors in the manner provided by Section 10 of this Act. Any such ordinances
