

fully and truly answer all such questions as shall be put to you touching your place of residence, name, place of birth, your qualifications as a voter, and your right as such to register and vote under the laws of this State." (2) The two officers of registration designated by the Supervisors to have custody of the two registry books, or such of their colleagues as such of them may respectively ask to temporarily replace him in the discharge of his duty shall make the entries therein required by this Article, and the questions as to qualifications shall be asked by the other officers of said Board.

(3) The name and age of every applicant shall be entered in such registry book and all the facts of his application shall be therein stated as herein provided, whether he be entitled to vote or not. If it shall be determined by the Board that he is not a qualified voter in the precinct, then an entry shall be made in the appropriate column "No", and a line shall be drawn in red ink through his name and through all the other entries on the line on which his name is written, but so that the name and said other entries shall remain legible; and if qualified, the entry shall be made in the same column "Yes."

(4) Only persons constitutionally qualified to vote in the precinct at the next election and personally applying for registration shall be registered as qualified voters. (5) The headings to the registry books shall be so prepared that the registry shall be made alphabetical, according to the surname of each person applying, and so that the residence and post office address of such person shall appear in the first column. The registers shall be ruled, and one name shall be written on each line, but no name shall be written between the lines. The entry shall be as follows: (A) Under the column "Residence and Post-office address", the name and number of the street, avenue or other location of the dwelling if there be a definite number, and if there shall not be a number, or if there shall be duplicate numbers, such clear and definite description of the place of such dwelling as shall enable it to be readily ascertained; if there shall be more than one house at the number given by the applicant as his place of residence, it shall be stated in which house he resides and if there be more than one family residing in said house, either the floor on which he resides, or the number or location of the room or rooms occupied by him shall be stated, every floor below the level of the street or ground being designated as the basement; the floor upon or first above such level being designated as the first floor, and each floor above that as the second, or such other floor as it may be. In county precincts it shall only be necessary to give such general description as may be sufficient for identification. (B) Under the column "Name" the name of the applicant, writing the surname first, and full
