SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 196 of Article 33 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1924 Edition), title "Elections," sub-title "Primary Elections," be and it is hereby repealed, and that Section 207 of Article 2 of the Public Local Laws of Maryland (1930 Edition), title "Anne Arundel County," sub-title "County Commissioners," be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments, to read as follows:

207. At the general election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in the month of November in the year nineteen hundred and forty-two (1942) and every four years thereafter, there shall be elected eight County Commissioners for Anne Arundel County, who shall be eligible for re-election; said Commissioners shall meet at their office in the Court House at Annapolis for the transaction of the duties of their office at least one day in each week, and on such other days as they may deem necessary.

A person to be eligible to the office of County Commissioner in Anne Arundel County shall have actually resided in the county for at least ten years, and shall be a taxpayer upon real estate in said county assessed for at least two thousand dollars. Each County Commissioner shall receive a salary of three hundred dollars ($300.00) per year, without mileage or other extra compensation of any kind.

At the primary elections held in Anne Arundel County at which candidates are to be selected for the positions of County Commissioners, the voters of each of the eight districts of said county shall determine for themselves who shall be their candidate to be voted for at the general election, and therefore, the names of the persons who file their names for the position of County Commissioner, in accordance with the General Primary Election Law, shall be placed by the Supervisors of Elections in said County, only upon the ballot in the district where the candidate resides, and the candidate who receives the greatest number of
