

have the right, pending his appeal, to deposit with the Justice a sum in cash double the amount of the fine imposed, as collateral security, for his appearance in the Circuit Court for Washington County on said appeal. Provided, no appeal shall be allowed under this section after payment of the fine, but deposit of cash as such collateral security in double the amount of the fine shall not be construed to be a payment of said fine.

576. The Mayor and Council of Hagerstown, immediately after the qualification of said Justice, shall furnish him with a copy of the charter and ordinances of Hagerstown, and shall supply him with copies of all new ordinances of said Hagerstown within one day after the adoption thereof, and shall notify him of the repeal of any ordinance within one day thereafter; and the said Mayor and Council of Hagerstown shall supply said Justice with all dockets for corporation cases and with the necessary stationery and office equipment used by him in the business of said town. The said Justice shall record in the corporation docket his proceedings in all such cases, setting forth the fines or imprisonment imposed and the amount of the costs, and he shall submit said docket to the inspection of any person who may request to see the same. It shall be the duty of the said Justice to make out a summarized statement of all corporation cases tried before him, with the fines and costs therein collected, which statement shall be sworn to and submitted monthly to the Mayor and Council. Upon the request of the Mayor and Council, the said Justice shall produce his docket and may be placed under oath and interrogated as to the entries therein. The said Justice shall pay over to the Tax Collector of Hagerstown quarterly all fines collected by him which may belong to said town. The Mayor and Council of Hagerstown are hereby authorized to make all levies and appropriations necessary to provide for the payment of the salaries, fees, expenses and costs made by this Act payable by the said Mayor and Council of Hagerstown.
