

229B. The property, real and personal, located within the new limits of said city and without the old lines thereof, shall pay for Municipal purposes city taxes beginning with the levy of 1940 as follows: on ten per cent of the assessed value thereof for the year 1940, and on ten per cent additional for each and every year thereafter until the full assessed value is reached and thereafter on the full assessed value thereof.

230. The said City is divided into five wards, the boundaries and limits of which are defined to be as follows:

For Ward Number One: Commencing in the center of the Public Square and running with the middle of Washington Street westwardly, two hundred and seventy-six feet, thence southwardly, through the middle of an alley, two hundred and seventy-six feet, thence westwardly, along the middle of an alley to the middle of Prospect Street; thence southwardly thirty-seven feet, thence westwardly through the middle of an alley, to the middle of Walnut Street; thence along the middle of Walnut Street, northeastwardly, to the middle of West Washington Street; thence along the middle of West Washington Street and West Washington Street extended to the western boundary of the city, thence northwardly with the western boundary of the city, to the middle of Franklin Street extended; thence eastwardly, with the middle of Franklin Street to the middle of Winter Street, thence southwardly, along the middle of Winter Street to the middle of an alley opposite the Winter Street School House, and lying between Franklin and Washington Streets; thence along the middle of said alley north of Washington Street, eastwardly to the alley running from Washington Street to Franklin Street, along the east side of the Baldwin House; thence northwardly, along the middle of the last mentioned alley, to the middle of Franklin Street; thence along the middle of Franklin Street to the middle of North Potomac Street; thence along the middle of North Potomac Street southwardly, to the place of beginning.

For Ward Number 2: Beginning in the center of the Public Square and running thence westwardly with the southern lines of Ward number one, to the western boundary of the city, thence southwardly and eastwardly with the boundary lines of the city, to the middle of the turnpike road leading to Sharpsburg; thence along the middle of said turnpike, and the middle of South Potomac Street to the place of beginning.

For Ward Number Three: Beginning in the center of the Public Square and running northwardly, through the middle of South Potomac Street and through the middle of the Sharpsburg Pike to the southern boundary of the city; thence with the boundaries of the city, eastwardly and northwardly, to intersect a straight line drawn along the middle of Valentine