

thereof, and to pay interest on all of the bonds authorized by this Act, which may be outstanding and unredeemed in such year, and the proceeds of such levy when collected and paid shall be used for the purpose, and for no other purpose than that for which such levy was made.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That the Board of Education of Prince George's County shall use the money received from the sale of bonds, or any part thereof, issued hereunder immediately upon its receipt for the payment of the necessary expenses of the issue of the loan and then for the specific purposes for which said bonds have been issued, and for no other purposes whatever; provided, however, that in case it shall not be necessary to use the full amount authorized herein for the construction or improvement and equipment of the specific school or schools for which such money is appropriated, that then and in such case the balance in the hands of the Board of Education of Prince George's County for such specific appropriations may, with the approval of the County Commissioners, be applied to the erection of new buildings, the addition to or the alteration of existing school buildings, and the equipment of such new additions or alterations at other places in said county, where, in the discretion of the Board of Education of Prince George's County, the same may be needed. The Board of Education of Prince George's County is hereby given full power and authority to do all things necessary to carry out the purposes of this Act, even though the same may not be specifically mentioned herein or in the general school laws of the State.

SEC. 7. And be it further enacted, That in case the Board of Education of Prince George's County shall determine, either before or after the sale of the bonds, that it is inadvisable to construct one or more of the school buildings or additions to schools specifically mentioned in Section 3 of this Act, but may consider it advisable to spend the amounts specifically set out for said school or schools, or any portion thereof, elsewhere in the construction and equipment of school buildings or additions to school buildings at other places in the County, then and in that event, it may by resolution request the County Commissioners to substitute for the specific purposes for which the said bonds were sold, or to be sold, or any of them, the construction of such new schools, or such additions to schools as said Board of Education may consider advisable and if the County Commissioners of Prince George's County concur in such changes, or any of them, they shall by a resolution approve the same, and thereupon such new items shall be substituted for the items in Section 3 of this Act, which the said
