

SEC. 7. And be it further enacted, That the Mayor and Common Council shall meet in some convenient place in said town from time to time as occasion may require, or upon the call of the Mayor or a majority of Councilmen; not less, however, than once in every month.

SEC. 8. And be it further enacted, That the said Mayor and Common Council shall appoint a Clerk and a Treasurer, or a combined Clerk-Treasurer, in which latter case the treasurer shall also act as clerk for said body, and in addition to his or her duties as treasurer shall keep the minutes of their proceedings in a well-bound book which shall be open to inspection of the public, and said clerk and/or Treasurer shall perform such other duties as the Mayor and Common Council may assign to him or her.

SEC. 9. And be it further enacted, That the Mayor and Common Council shall appoint one or more town policemen, and/or special officers for said town, who are hereby declared to have and are vested, with as full powers as a constable in criminal and misdemeanor cases, within the said town limits, and who shall perform such duties as may be required of them by said Mayor and Common Council, and who shall preserve the peace and good order of said town. They may make arrests for the violation of the Public General and Public Local Laws as well as the ordinances of the town, and shall have authority to retain custody outside of the town over persons arrested while in the course of taking them to a Justice of the Peace and to a jail.

SEC. 10. And be it further enacted, That the Mayor and Common Council shall establish a reasonable salary or compensation for the Treasurer. All the appointees of the Mayor and Common Council shall receive such fees or compensation as they may provide and shall hold their offices or positions at the pleasure of said Mayor and Common Council.

SEC. 11. And be it further enacted, That before any elective or appointive officer of the said town of Fairmount Heights shall enter upon his or her duties he or she shall take the constitutional oath of office before some officer authorized to administer oaths in said Prince George's County; and he or she shall file a certificate of such oath with the clerk of said Mayor and Common Council which shall become part of the records of the said town.

SEC. 12. And be it further enacted, That the Treasurer shall give bond to the Mayor and Common Council in such sum and