

suant to this sub-title, which journal or docket shall at all times be open to inspection and examination by the public.

288G. In the case of public fairs, games, parades and/or other public events being held in said county where a large gathering of people or vehicles along any such road, street or highway is anticipated, the County Commissioners may pass and adopt such reasonable temporary rules and regulations governing the traffic and the movement of vehicles in the vicinity of any such fair, game, parade or other public event as said County Commissioners may deem necessary to prevent the congestion of such traffic and the obstruction of such streets, roads or highways; and such rules and regulations shall have the same force and effect as other rules and regulations passed pursuant to this sub-title.

288H. The presence along any such highway, road or street of the signs or markers mentioned in this sub-title shall be prima facie evidence of the passage of the rules, orders and/or regulations herein provided for. It shall be unlawful for any person wilfully to deface, injure, move or interfere with any sign, standard, post, safety zone, or any other traffic directing device erected by the authority of the Board of County Commissioners; or with any lines or marks painted by authority of the said County Commissioners, on any pavement, curb or roadway for the purpose of directing traffic or parking of vehicles.

288-I. Any person violating any provisions of this sub-title, or any rule, order and/or regulation passed by the Board of County Commissioners pursuant hereto, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof before a justice of the peace of said county shall be fined for each and every offense any sum not less than one dollar and not exceeding twenty-five dollars.

288J. In case it shall be judicially determined that any word, phrase, clause, item, sentence, or section of this sub-title and/or any rule, order or regulation passed by the Board of County Commissioners pursuant hereto, or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remaining provisions and the application of such provisions to other persons or circumstances shall not be affected thereby.
