

name in the Town Register, or influencing any judge of election in the discharge of his duties, shall be deemed to constitute perjury and shall be punishable under the laws of the State of Maryland relating to such offenses.

(f) In the event of the Commissioners failing to proclaim an election at the time appointed in sub-section (a) of this section or the neglect of the Commissioners to do any needful thing prescribed therein to ensure the holding of a legal election to elect their successors, the Circuit Court of Prince George's County shall, upon the petition of five residents of the town of Berwyn Heights eligible to vote in town elections, appoint five taxpaying voters of the town to conduct an election in the manner in this section provided on an early date to be fixed by the Court.

34. The commissioners may pass such ordinances, not inconsistent with law, as in their judgment may be for the interest of the town and provide in such ordinances the penalties and punishments for violation thereof; they shall have supervision over the walks, streets, roads and alleys of said town; may open and close streets, lanes and alleys, grade and pave the same; restrain all disorder and disturbances in said town; abate nuisances therein; provide for removal of obstructions from streets, lanes and alleys; establish building lines; prevent animals from running at large; provide for the protection of the public health, safety and welfare; exercise all the police power necessary to order the removal of nuisances or dangerous conditions from any lots or private premises in said town and provide penalties for the violation thereof; grant and recall licenses at their discretion for the operating or conducting of any and all places of public amusement and entertainment and business and fix the fees to be paid on the granting of any such license; and any ordinance passed by said commissioners may provide for its enforcement by a prosecution before any Justice of the Peace of Prince George's County. A majority of said commissioners shall constitute a quorum and the act of such majority shall be the act of the whole Board of Commissioners.

37. Upon a petition signed by twenty-five per centum of the voters of said town requesting the recall of any one of the said commissioners on failure properly to perform the duties of his office, said commissioner shall hold a special election at which the voters of said town shall vote for or against the recall of said commissioner, and in the event the majority are in favor of said recall, the office of said commissioner shall be declared by the said commissioners vacant, and the vacancy filled by a special election as provided for in this charter in the case of general elections.
