

moneys received for these licenses. Also every constable shall deliver the book or books from which he issued licenses, together with the stubs therein, properly filled out and showing the name and the number of the license issued to him to the County Treasurer before the first day of July in each year.

183E. Any person may kill any dog which he sees in the act of pursuing, worrying, wounding or killing any poultry or live stock, or attacking human beings whether or not such dog bears the proper license tag required by these provisions. There shall be no liability on such persons in damages or otherwise for such killing. Any unlicensed dog that enters any field or yard shall constitute a private nuisance and the owner or tenant of such field or yard, or other agent or servant, may kill such dog while it is in the field or yard without liability or responsibility of any nature for such killing and any person may kill a female dog running at large while in heat without liabilities therefor.

183F. All monies arising from the dog licenses or taxes shall be kept in a separate fund by the County Treasurer and shall be used for the payment of damages for the injury and killing of sheep, poultry or other livestock in said county. In the event the same are not sufficient for the payment of all such damages the said damages shall be paid in the order the claims are presented and any person or persons whose claims are not paid in any one year by reason of the lack of money to the credit of the said fund, which is to be designated "The Dog License Fund", shall be paid out of the first money coming into the fund after his claim is reached, and shall be paid in the order in which said claims are proved and filed; and any claims now filed and passed upon, but remaining unpaid, shall have preference over any new claims in the order of payment. The County Commissioners may expend any funds in excess of one thousand dollars ($1,000.00) remaining in the hands of the County Treasurer after the payment of the claims as aforesaid, for any public purpose which, in their judgment, may seem right and proper, and are further empowered, whenever in their judgment it may become necessary to do so, to enter into a contract or agreement with such persons, association of persons or corporations as they may deem suitable, for the removal, care and disposition of unlicensed dogs, or licensed dogs which may create a menace to the safety and security of the residents of Baltimore County, on such terms and conditions and for such compensation as may be agreed to by the said County Commissioners of Baltimore County and such persons, association of persons or corporations.
