

shall report to the council at its first meeting each year the condition of municipal affairs; he shall have the power of vetoing any ordinances, as hereinafter provided in Section 335. From and after the General Election on the Fourth Tuesday in March, 1941, he shall receive an annual salary of Twenty-Five Hundred ($2,500.00) Dollars, provided that the duly qualified Mayor serving until said election in 1941, shall receive, in addition to his present salary the sum of $600.00 per year, payable at the rate of $50.00 per month as an expense account, and no other fee or compensation whatsoever.

233. There shall be elected one councilman for each of said Wards as follows: on the fourth Tuesday of March in the year 1941 and not before, and on the same day every four years thereafter; and the term of office of the present councilmen are hereby extended until said election in 1941. All councilmen elected shall hold office until their successors are duly elected and qualified. The qualifications of the voters for councilmen shall be the same as for Mayor, provided the voter shall have resided for six months next preceding the election in the ward in which he offers to vote; and in case of removal or until such residence is acquired, the voter must vote in the ward from which he has removed and in which he is a qualified voter. The said councilmen shall be twenty-five years of age, citizens of the United States, residents of Hagerstown for five years next preceding the election and residents of the respective wards for which they are chosen for six months next preceding the election, and shall take the oath of office as hereinafter prescribed for city officers. From and after the General Election on the Fourth Tuesday in March, 1941, they shall receive an annual salary of One Thousand ($1,000.00) Dollars each, provided, however, that the duly qualified councilmen serving until said election in 1941, shall receive, as expenses in addition to their present salary the sum of $300.00 per year, payable at the rate of $25.00 each per month, and no other fee or compensation whatsoever.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1939.
