

375. The term "beverages", as used in Sections 375 to 380F, inclusive, shall include beer, lager beer, ale, porter, stout and other brewed beverages, containing not more than six per centum (6%) of alcohol by volume.

The term "person" shall mean and include natural persons, associations, firms and corporations.

376. The County Commissioners of Caroline County are authorized to issue licenses to persons, firms, associations or corporations on applications duly made therefor, for the sale of beverages within the limits of Caroline County, subject, however, to the limitations and restrictions imposed by this Act. The said County Commissioners shall keep a full record of all applications for licenses, of all recommendations for and remonstrances against the granting of licenses, and of the action taken thereon. The expenses incident to such work shall be paid by the County Commissioners from the funds arising from license fees hereinafter provided.

The County Commissioners for Caroline County, in the administration of this Act shall act as the Board of License Commissioners for said County, and each of the said Commissioners shall receive from the license fees imposed under this Act, in addition to their present salaries, the sum of Seventy-five Dollars ($75.00) per annum for their services, and the remainder of said license fees shall be used by the said County Commissioners for the general purposes of the County. The Commissioners shall designate and fix the first Tuesday, between the hours of 9 A. M. and 1 P. M. in each calendar month on which they shall sit as the Board of License Commissioners for the hearing of such applications, complaints, and other business that may come before them in the administration of this Act.

377. No license shall be issued to a partnership as such, but only to the partners as individuals. No license shall be issued to a corporation or unincorporated association as such, but only to one or more individuals duly authorized to act for the corporation or association, and such individuals shall assume all of the responsibilities, and be subject to all of the penalties, conditions and restrictions imposed upon licensees under the provisions of this Act. The application for every such license shall disclose the name and address of the corporation, partnership or association, as well as the name and address of the applicant.

378. Any person, firm, corporation or association desiring a license for the sale of beverages under this Act shall file with the County Commissioners of Caroline County an application therefor in such form as may be prescribed. The appli-
