

amended by Chapter 2 of the Acts of 1933, be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments to read as follows:

2. For the purpose of carrying out the provisions of said act, the said sewerage district shall be under the jurisdiction of a commission of five members, namely:

J. Garland Healy

Jesse A. Fisher

J. Clayton Brewer, representing the City of Annapolis,

R. Earle Strange, representing that part of the sewerage district outside of Annapolis; and

James H. Ellis, representing the Anne Arundel County Sanitary Commission, who shall hold office for the period of four years from May 1, 1931, or until their successors are appointed and have qualified. Upon the expiration of the said terms of the members of said commission, their successors shall be named in the manner following: three members to be appointed by the Mayor, Counsellor and Aldermen of the City of Annapolis, and two by the County Commissioners of Anne Arundel County, one of whom shall be a member of the Anne Arundel County Sanitary Commission. The appointees of the Mayor, Counsellor and Aldermen of the City of Annapolis shall be residents and taxpayers of the said sewerage district, the appointee of the said County Commissioners, other than the member of the Sanitary Commission, shall be a resident and taxpayer of the sewerage district outside of the City limits of the City of Annapolis, and shall serve for four years, or until their successors are appointed and have qualified. Any vacancy occurring at any time in the personnel of the Commission shall be filled by the agencies prescribed as above for making the subsequent appointments, and shall serve for the unexpired term. Annual salary of each of said commissioners shall be one hundred dollars, payable monthly. The Commission shall elect one of its members chairman, and shall appoint and discharge at pleasure and fix the compensation of secretary-treasurer (who may be a member of the said sewerage commission) and such engineering, legal, clerical and other force and help as, from time to time, in its judgment may be deemed necessary to carry out the provisions of this Act. The Commission is hereby empowered to delegate the engineering duties to the Anne Arundel County Sanitary Commission, if it so deems desirable, allowing the Anne Arundel County Sanitary Commission such funds to carry out such delegated duties as may be agreed upon between the two commissions. Said Annapolis Metropolitan Sewerage Commission shall annually publish in at least one newspaper in Annapolis a full and true account, under oath, of its receipts, expenses and expenditures. Prior to such publication, said account
