

The Commissioner of Labor with the approval of the Governor shall appoint from the successful candidates a Chief Boiler Inspector.

135. This sub-title shall not apply to boilers under Federal Control, or to boilers of steam fire engines brought into the State for temporary use in times of emergency, or to portable boilers used for agricultural purposes only, or to steam heating boilers carrying not more than fifteen pounds pressure, and hot water boilers carrying a pressure not exceeding 160 pounds or a temperature not exceeding 250 degrees Fahrenheit.

136. The Commissioner of Labor and Statistics is hereby charged, directed and empowered:

To employ, subject to the approval of the Governor, deputy inspectors who shall have passed the examination provided for in Section 138.

The Chief Inspector and his deputy inspectors shall have free access for himself and his said deputies, during reasonable hours, to any premises in the State where a boiler is being constructed or is being installed or operated in accordance with the provisions of this sub-title.

To prosecute all violators of the provisions of this sub-title to issue, suspend and revoke inspection certificates allowing boilers to be operated, as provided in this sub-title.

The Commissioner of Labor and Statistics is hereby empowered to set up a special fund from collections made under this sub-title to be drawn upon to cover the cost of necessary expenses incurred by the administration of this sub-title, to be supplemented if necessary, from general funds, until such time as this department shall become self-supporting.

To enforce the laws of the State governing the use of boilers and to enforce the rules and regulations of the Board of Boiler Rules.

To keep a complete record of the type, dimensions, age, condition, pressure allowed upon, location and date of the last inspection of all boilers to which this sub-title applies.

To publish and distribute among manufacturers and others requesting them, copies of the rules and regulations adopted by the Board of Boiler Rules.

137. In addition to the deputy boiler inspectors authorized by Section 135, the Chief Inspector shall, upon the request of any company authorized to insure against loss from explosion of boilers in this State, issue to any boiler inspectors of said company commissions as special inspectors, provided that each such inspector before receiving his commission shall pass satisfactorily the examination provided for in Section 138 or, in lieu
