

of such examination shall hold a certificate of competency as an inspector of boilers for a state that has a standard of examination substantially equal to that of the State of Maryland or a certificate as an inspector of boilers from the National Board of Boiler and Pressure Inspectors. Such special inspectors shall receive no salary from, nor shall any of their expenses be paid by the state, and the continuance of a special inspector's commission shall be conditioned upon his continuing in the employ of a boiler inspection and insurance company duly authorized as aforesaid, and upon his maintenance of the standards imposed by this sub-title. Such special inspectors shall inspect all boilers insured by their respective companies, and the owners or users of such insured boilers shall be exempt from the payment of inspection fees, as provided for in Section 142. Each company employing such special inspectors shall within thirty days following each annual internal inspection made by such inspectors, file a report of such inspection with the chief inspector upon appropriate forms as promulgated by the American Society of Mechanical Engineers

138. Examinations for deputy inspectors shall be given by the State Employment Commissioner and the special inspectors' examination shall be given by the State Board of Boiler Rules, or by at least two examiners to be appointed by said Board, and must be in writing. Such examinations shall be confined to questions the answers to which will aid in determining the fitness and competency of the applicant for the intended service and shall be of uniform grade throughout the State. In case an applicant for an inspector's appointment or commission fails to pass the examination, he may appeal to the Board of Boiler Rules for a second examination which shall be given by said Board or, if by examiners appointed by said Board, then by examiners other than those by whom the first examination was given, and these examiners shall be appointed forthwith to give said second examination. Upon the result of this examination on appeal, the Board shall determine whether the applicant be qualified. The record of an applicant's examination, whether original or on appeal, shall be accessible to him and his employer.

A commission may be suspended or revoked by the Chief Inspector of boilers for the incompetence or untrustworthiness of the holder thereof, or for wilful falsification of any matter or statement contained in his application or in a report of any inspection. A person whose commission is revoked may appeal from the revocation to the Board of Boiler Rules which shall hear the appeal and either set aside or affirm the revocation, and its decision shall be final. A person whose commis-
