

of the said incorporated municipalities; it being the intention that, although the fines, penalties and forfeitures received by the County Commissioners are to be remitted to the municipalities in the proportions named, the costs or fees imposed and collected by said trial magistrates and remitted to the County Commissioners, are to be retained by said County Commissioners.

95. Salary Plan. As full compensation for their services in civil and criminal cases the said trial magistrates and other justices of the peace shall be paid salaries by the County Commissioners of the respective counties as hereinafter specified in Section 98.

96. Constables. The County Commissioners of each County may appoint one constable for each of the election districts of the County and such number of constables at large as hereinafter specified, to be designated and to serve as constables for the trial magistrates; and salaries shall be paid by the County Commissioners to said constables at large, in lieu of all costs and fees chargeable by or for them in civil and criminal cases; but the said costs and fees shall be collected as heretofore and paid to the County Commissioners. The said salaries in the respective counties shall be as hereinafter provided.

97. Reimbursement to Counties. The trial magistrates shall promptly report and remit to the Commissioner of Motor Vehicles, in accordance with the Motor Vehicle Law, all fines, forfeitures, penalties and costs imposed and collected by them in cases of violation of said law. The Commissioner of Motor Vehicles shall keep separate accounts for each of the trial magistrates in the State. Not later than the fifteenth day of each month, the Commissioner of Motor Vehicles shall remit to the County Commissioners of each County the sum of two dollars ($2.00) for every case of violation of the Motor Vehicle Law in said County during the preceding month, for which accounting or due report has been made by said magistrates, said sums so remitted by the Commissioner of Motor Vehicles to be applied by the County to the payment of the salaries and other expenses specified in this Act.

98. Number and Salaries. The number and salaries of the trial magistrates and the places where they shall sit in the several counties shall be as follows:

Allegheny County. There shall be ten trial magistrates, two of whom shall sit for the trial of cases in the City of Cumberland, two at Frostburg, one at Westernport, one at Lonaconing, one
