

108. Substitute Magistrates. In addition to the justices of the peace and justices of the peace at large hereinbefore specified, the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, shall appoint one justice of the peace at large for each county of the State who shall be designated "Substitute Trial Magistrate". Such magistrate shall post the bond required of trial magistrates and shall receive a salary of $100.00 per year, except the substitute magistrate appointed for Baltimore County, who shall receive $400.00 per year in addition to the compensation received when actually sitting as a substitute as hereinafter provided.

In the event of the temporary absence or inability of a trial magistrate, the substitute trial magistrate shall serve in his place and stead during the period of his absence or inability, and shall have the same power and authority and be subject to the same duties and responsibilities as the said trial magistrate. He shall receive from the County Commissioners the same pro-rata amount for his compensation and the same expenses as would have been received under this Act by the trial magistrate whose absence or inability caused the substitution, and the salary of the trial magistrate so causing the substitution shall be diminished by a sum necessary to compensate the substitute as herein provided, for any such period of absence or inability in excess of 15 days in any one year.

109. Corporate Bond. Every trial magistrate, before entering upon his official duties, shall give to the State of Maryland and file with the Clerk of the Circuit Court for the county, a good and sufficient bond, with corporate security to be approved by the County Commissioners of the County for which he was appointed, in the penalty of five thousand ($5,000.00) dollars, upon the condition expressed in each of said bonds that the Justice giving it will truly and faithfully discharge, execute and perform all and singular the duties and obligations of a justice of the peace, and that he will account for and pay over to the County Commissioners of the County, or to whomsoever else may be otherwise or hereafter designated by law as the proper recipient thereof, all fees, costs, fines, penalties and forfeitures which he is bound to account for and pay over as aforesaid, and that he will faithfully and truly account for and pay over to the person or corporation entitled thereto all money belonging to such person or corporation which may come into his hands as such justice of the peace.

Every justice of the peace other than a trial magistrate or a substitute trial magistrate, shall, before entering upon his duties, give a corporate bond similarly conditioned, in the amount of $1,000.00.
