

The premiums of all bonds required by this Act shall be paid by the County Commissioners.

110. Reports and Remittances. Every trial magistrate shall on the second Monday of each month file with the County Commissioners a report in writing, under oath, of all cases civil and criminal, heard or tried before him during the preceding month, which report shall state in each case the names of the parties, the nature of the case or the offense charged, the number of witnesses summoned, the name of the officer serving the warrant and summons, the judgment rendered, and the amount of the fine, penalty or forfeiture, fees and costs imposed and collected; and he shall at the time of making his report pay over to the County Commissioners all such fines, penalties, forfeitures, fees and costs stated in his said report, except in Motor Vehicle cases, for which provision is made in Section 97.

Failure of a trial magistrate to make reports to the County Commissioners and to the Commissioner of Motor Vehicles of all cases instituted before or tried by him and the disposition thereof as required by this Act and failure to remit promptly all moneys herein required to be remitted to the County Commissioners and the Commissioner of Motor Vehicles, shall be deemed a violation of this Act.

111. Levy of necessary taxes. The County Commissioners in each County are hereby authorized and directed to levy and collect annual taxes, on the property assessable for taxation in said County, to such amount as may be necessary to supplement their receipts from the Commissioner of Motor Vehicles and trial magistrates under this Act, for the payment of the salaries of trial magistrates, other justices of the peace and constables, and of the traveling expenses of said trial magistrates and constables as specified in this Act, and of the compensation and expenses of clerical assistants for trial magistrates when authorized, and for the payment of the cost of providing quarters and equipment for such magistrates.

112. Penalties. Violation of any of the provisions of this Act shall be deemed a misdemeanor, punishable upon conviction in the Circuit Court of the county by a fine of not more than $500.00, or imprisonment for not more than one year, or both, in the discretion of the Court. The State's Attorney of the county shall be charged with the enforcement of this Act.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That Section 178 of Article 56 of the Code of Public General Laws of Maryland title "Licenses", sub-title "Motor Vehicles" and "Disposition of Fines and Other Receipts", be and it is hereby repealed to the
