

SEC. 16. And be it further enacted, That the said Mayor and Commissioners of Cresaptown are hereby authorized and empowered at any time or times thereafter to enact an ordinance or ordinances setting out the purpose or purposes for which the money provided under this Act shall be applied, and the approximate cost of each item of expenditure, and to submit the same to the qualified voters of said town of Cresaptown at an election, and said election shall be held under the supervision and direction of the said Mayor and Commissioners of Cresaptown and in the manner in which the general elections of the said town are held, and such ordinance shall not be effective unless a majority of the votes cast at such an election shall declare the assent of the voters to the borrowing of said money and the issuing of said bonds mentioned in said ordinance, and to the purposes to which said money shall be applied.

The ordinance or ordinances, mentioned in this section, shall clearly set forth the amount of the bonds which the Mayor and Commissioners of Cresaptown desire to issue, a general description of the purposes or improvements to which the money is to be applied, and an estimate of the approximate costs in carrying out such improvements; and the issuance of bonds under this Act may be submitted by the Mayor and Commissioners of Cresaptown to the qualified voters by ordinance, as herein provided for, at any time and from time to time, until the full amount of one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) as herein provided for shall be authorized, and the Mayor and Commissioners of Cresaptown may, if they desire, incorporate in said ordinance two or more distinct propositions and submit the same to the voters so as to allow them to vote for either or all of said propositions.

SEC. 17. And be it further enacted, That for the purpose of determining whether the citizens of said Cresaptown desire to incorporate, there shall be held a referendum on June 15, 1939, between the hours of 7 A. M. and 7 P. M. under the supervision of a committee consisting of Jacob Richardson, Francis Keefer and Wm. Meagher who are hereby appointed judges for that purpose and for the time hereinafter named; provided that in case any of said judges shall be unable to act on account of sickness, death, refusal to act or otherwise, then the remaining judge or judges shall fill the vacancy or vacancies by appointing a suitable person or persons residing in said town who are qualified voters therein in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

The said committee shall not less than five days before said referendum election, post in five conspicuous places in said town a written or printed notice notifying all the residents
