

Section 406B. (a) It shall be the duty of the Board of Police Examiners to ascertain by appropriate investigation the qualifications of all candidates for appointment or promotion in the Anne Arundel County Police Department and to furnish upon request to the Chief of Police of Anne Arundel County lists of those whom they shall deem qualified for appointment or promotion arranged in the order of their respective qualifications as disclosed by such examination, provided, however, they shall not place upon such list the name of any person who shall be less than twenty-four years or more than forty years of age for appointments to such force and the name of any person under thirty years or more than fifty years of age for promotions, and said examination shall be conducted by and under definite rules to be adopted by said examining Board from time to time and when so adopted to be recorded among the records of the County Commissioners of Anne Arundel County before the holding of each and every examination to which they shall be made applicable.

(b) The said Chief of Police shall have control and supervision over the other members of said Police Department and shall assign the members thereof to such duties and to such hours as he may deem necessary, and shall make such rules and regulations for the proper government and discipline of the members of said Police Department and for the operation of said Department as he may deem best to promote the efficiency of said Department, subject, however, to the approval, revisionary power, and general supervision and control of the Board of Police Examiners. A copy of such rules and regulations shall be furnished to each officer, and whenever any addition or change is made in such rules and regulations a copy of such addition or change shall be provided for each officer and each officer shall maintain a complete set of said rules and regulations together with all additions and changes thereto, and shall familiarize himself therewith. The Chief of Police may, in his discretion, suspend without pay any member of the Department for not more than thirty days for breach of discipline or insubordination; any officer so suspended may appeal to the Board of Police Examiners.

406BB. The County Commissioners are hereby authorized to establish a Bureau of Identification, which shall be under the direct control and supervision of a sergeant of said Police Department. The County Commissioners shall provide for the incidental expenses for supplies neces-
