

REVOCATION AND SUSPENSION OF LICENSES.

42. Revocation and suspensions—causes for which licenses may be revoked or suspended. Any license issued under the provisions of this Article may be revoked or suspended by the Comptroller in the case of licenses issued by him, the Board of License Commissioners for Baltimore City, or any County in the case of licenses required to be approved by them, and by the State License Bureau in all other cases, for any cause which in the judgment of the official, board or bureau, as the case may be, shall be necessary to promote the peace or safety of the community in which the place of business is situated, and such license must be revoked or suspended for the following causes: (1) conviction of the licensee for the violation of any of the provisions of this Article; (2) the willful failure or refusal of any licensee to comply with any rule or regulation that may be adopted in pursuance of this Article; (3) the making of any material, false statement in any application for a license; (4) two or more convictions of one or more of the clerks, agents, employees and servants of a licensee under the provisions of this Article of any violation on the licensed premises, within a period of two years; (5) the possession upon the premises of any retail dealer other than the holder of a Class E or Class F license of any alcoholic beverage upon which the tax imposed by this Article has not been paid; (6) the violation of the provisions of Section 28 of this Article; (7) the willful failure of any licensee to keep the records required by this Article or to allow any inspections of such records by a duly authorized person; (8) possession of any alcoholic beverage which any licensee other than the holder of a Class E or Class F license is not licensed to sell; (9) the suspension or revocation of a permit issued to any licensee by the Federal Alcohol Administration; and (10) failure to furnish bond as required by this Article within fifteen days after notice from the Comptroller.

51. The Comptroller is hereby directed and empowered to make, amend, alter and publish rules and regulations for the proper enforcement of his duties under this Article. He is authorized to adopt rules and regulations in regard to labeling and advertising similar to those adopted by the Federal Alcohol Administration, credit sales, records to be kept by licensees and others engaged in the business, and such other subjects as may be deemed necessary for the proper administration of his duties under this Article; provided such rules and regulations in regard to labeling of
