

issue an execution of any kind except upon written application therefor by the party entitled thereto or his agent.

716L. To carry out the purposes of this Act, to the extent permitted by the Constitution, rules may from time to time be promulgated

(1) By the Chief Judge of the People's Court applicable to all proceedings hereunder,

(a) Prescribing, modifying and approving forms to be used in such proceedings;

(b) Authorizing and regulating assistance by clerks of said Court in the preparation of papers pursuant to section 716C hereof;

(c) Authorizing and regulating service by registered mail pursuant to Section 716D hereof;

(d) Prescribing the proof and terms to be required for waiver of prepayment or payment of costs or fees pursuant to section 716H hereof; and

(e) Providing for the assignment of cases to said Judges and the precedence of certain classes of cases; and

(2) By each of the Judges of said Court, individually (after consultation with the other Judges to promote uniformity), applicable to the proceedings coming before him,

(a) Regulating the practice and procedure for arbitration and conciliation therein;

(b) Regulating the practice and procedure in trials thereof; and

(c) Regulating consultations pursuant to Section 716J.

In the event of the adoption of a constitutional amendment creating a People's Court of Baltimore City and conferring upon it general rule-making power, the preceding provisions of this section shall be inapplicable to the Judges of the Court so created, and rules regulating all of the foregoing matters and all other matters authorized by such amendment to be so regulated shall be promulgated in accordance with such amendment.

716M. Except as otherwise provided in this Act or in rules promulgated pursuant thereto, the practice and procedure in all proceedings under this Act and the duties and powers of said Judges shall be the same as provided for civil actions before Justices of the Peace.
