

the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland (1930 Edition), title "Montgomery County", sub-title "Licenses", said new section to be known as Section 368B and to follow immediately after Section 368A of said Article and to read as follows:

368B. From, on and after April 1, 1939, it shall be unlawful for any person, association, firm, corporation, incorporated town or special taxing area, engaged in the business of collecting or disposing of garbage, trash, junk or other refuse, to collect or dispose of any such garbage, trash, junk or other refuse by feeding, dumping, incinerating or other final disposition, within the confines of Montgomery County, Maryland, unless said person, association, firm, corporation, incorporated town or special taxing area shall have obtained a permit from the Board of County Commissioners of Montgomery County, and such collection or disposal shall be in accordance with such rules and regulation, which may include the imposition of reasonable fees to cover the cost of inspection and licensing, as the Board of County Commissioners shall, from time to time, prescribe, provided, however, that no incorporated town or special taxing area shall be required to pay any fees for said inspection and licensing. Any violation of this Act shall constitute a misdemeanor, and any person convicted thereof before a Justice of the Peace or court of competent jurisdiction shall be punished by a fine of not less than Five Dollars ($5.00) nor more than Fifty Dollars ($50.00), or by imprisonment for not less than thirty (30) days nor more than ninety (90) days, or both, in the discretion of the Court.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency law and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety, and being passed by a yea and nay vote, supported by three-fifths of all the members elected to each of the two Houses of the General Assembly, the same shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 26, 1939.

CHAPTER 165.

(House Bill 14)

AN ACT to repeal Sections 128 to 131, inclusive, of Article 41 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1935 Supplement), title "Governor—Executive and Administrative Departments," sub-title "Department of Engineering," and to
