

tion district of the County to act as Assessors, and to receive compensation at the rate of eight dollars ($8.00) per day, and one competent clerk for each such district to receive compensation of four dollars ($4.00) per day. Such Assessors and clerks shall serve only during such general reassessment.

152D. (a) Neither the Director nor any Assessor, nor any employee of the Department shall receive or retain any fee or commission whatever for any services performed hereunder; any such fees or commissions collectible by law shall be paid to the County Treasurer and credited to the general funds of the County.

(b) The County Commissioners shall appropriate four hundred dollars ($400.00) annually to be expended under the control of the Director for travelling and other expenses of himself and his assistants in connection with their duties under this sub-title.

ASSESSMENTS.

152E. To carry out a continuous, orderly assessment of property and to maintain a fair equalization of assessable values in the County, the Director

(1) Shall visit or cause an Assessor or assistant to visit each district of Anne Arundel County at frequent intervals and shall inform himself by all lawful means

(a) Of all property, stock or investments in the County liable to taxation and not included in the last revised list of assessments.

(b) Of all buildings and improvements constructed, and of all property created or acquired, since such revised assessment, and

(c) Of any property heretofore assessed which, in justice and equity, requires revaluation, and

(2) Shall value or re-value all such property at its full cash value, and

(3) Shall submit bi-monthly to the Board of County Commissioners at its first meeting in that month a written statement under his oath setting forth in detail all property recommended for assessment, the valuation which he has placed thereon, and the name and post office address, if known, of the person assessed.

Until authorized by the State Tax Commission or by law, no general re-assessment shall be made in the County. In
