

Drinks", be and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted so as to read as follows:

212. The Clerk of the Circuit Court shall be entitled to collect from each applicant a fee of One Dollar ($1.00) for receiving the application, all such fees to be accounted for as other fees of the Clerk under the laws of this State. All fees collected from the issuance of alcoholic liquor licenses, with amounts collected under Section 212-A hereof for newspaper advertising, shall be paid by the Clerk to the Treasurer of Howard County to be credited to the general funds of the County and disbursed on order of the County Commissioners for general county purposes. All fines imposed for any violation of this sub-title shall be remitted to the Treasurer of Howard County to be credited to the same fund and used for the same purposes.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That three new sections be and the same are hereby added to Article 14 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland (Edition of 1930), title "Howard County", sub-title "Liquors and Intoxicating Drinks", to come in immediately after Section 212 of said Article of said Code, to be designated 212-A, 212-B and 212-C, and to read as follows:

212-A. Beginning with the Month of June, 1939, and each month thereafter, the Clerk of the Circuit Court for Howard County shall publish by a single insertion in a newspaper of general circulation in Howard County, a notice of all "Class A" and "Class B" licenses issued under the provisions of this sub-title during the month preceding, and a sum sufficient to pay the proportionate cost of such notice shall be paid to the Clerk by each person to whom a license is issued. The published notice shall group the licenses according to districts and shall specify the name of the person to whom the license is issued, the kind of license and location of the place of business. The notice shall also contain a clause to the effect that five (5) or more reputable citizens who are real estate owners, voters and residents in the district where the place of business is located, may over their own signatures file with the Clerk of the Circuit Court for Howard County protests against any license granted, and the continued operation of the particular place of business.

212-B. When any protest provided for in the foregoing section shall be filed with the Clerk of the Circuit Court, there shall be endorsed thereon the time of filing, and the same shall be immediately transmitted to the County Com-
