

Edition), title "Washington County", sub-title "Hagerstown", to be under sub-heading "Junk Shops and Second-Hand Stores", said new sections to be known as Sections 381A, 381B and 381C, to follow immediately after Section 381 of said Article, and to read as follows:

Junk Shops and Second-Hand Stores

381A. It shall be unlawful for any keeper, owner, proprietor or employee of any junk shop within the City of Hagerstown, or for any owner, proprietor or employee of any second-hand store within said City to barter, purchase, exchange, buy or accept from any person whatsoever, except plumbers holding licenses as such, or the owner or owners of buildings from which the material is taken, any pipe, faucet, boilers, spigots, coils, lead, solder, copper, alloys of metals or manufactures of metals, tin plate, or any other like material whatever, or to barter, purchase, exchange, buy, receive or accept any other second-hand goods, wares, or merchandise of any kind or nature whatever, without providing and keeping books, and making therein at the time of such purchase, exchange, receiving or accepting, the entries hereinafter provided.

381B. Every owner of such junk shops and second-hand stores shall provide and constantly keep a book, in which shall be fairly written down in the English language, at the time of every purchase of any such material, a description of all articles so purchased, the name and residence of the person from whom such purchase was made, and the day and the hour of such purchase, and such books shall at all times be open to the inspection of any and every member of the police and detective forces of such City. Such book or books must be preserved for a period of at least three years after the date of the last purchase or transaction recorded in such book.

381C. Any person who shall violate, or neglect, fail or refuse to comply with any or all of the provisions of the two preceding sections, shall for every offense, upon conviction before any court of competent jurisdiction, be fined not less than Five nor more than One Hundred Dollars, and in default of payment thereof be imprisoned in jail for a period not exceeding ninety days.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1939.

Approved May 3, 1939.