

law and no action for damages shall be maintained for such killing.

(g) It shall be unlawful for any person to sell, offer for sale, purchase or offer to purchase, barter, exchange, or buy at any time within the State of Maryland, any bob-white or partridge (quail); English Ringneck, Mongolian or Melanistic Mutant Pheasant, or any other imported species; native pheasant, ruffed grouse, cottontail rabbit, deer, wild turkey or wild water fowl, either dead or alive, whether same are caught or killed within the State of Maryland or in any other State, territory or country, except live game may be purchased and kept in captivity for propagation purposes only, upon securing a permit from the Game Warden.

(h) Provided, however, nothing contained in this section shall prohibit the person lawfully killing a rabbit from selling same to a consumer in the county where said rabbit was killed for food; however, same shall not be offered for re-sale, transported or shipped beyond the confines of said county in which said rabbit was killed, except as provided in Paragraph A of Section 22 of Article 99. Provided, however, nothing herein shall prohibit the sale of rabbits in Baltimore City shipped into said city from points outside of this State. And be it further provided it shall be lawful to ship rabbits during open season for killing of same out of Garrett County to Baltimore City for sale.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1939.

Approved May 17, 1939.

CHAPTER 232.

(House Bill 86)

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact, with amendments, Sections 38 and 40 of Article 16 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1924 Edition), title "Chancery", sub-title "Divorce", Section 38 having been amended by Chapter 396 of the Acts of 1937, providing that divorce may be granted after abandonment has continued uninterruptedly for a period of one year, and also providing that the period of residence required for making application for a divorce where the causes of divorce occurred outside the State shall be one year preceding such application.

(Vetoed.)