

be, where the person so summoned resides, a warrant for the arrest of said person, which warrant shall be executed in due course by the Sheriff to whom directed and the person so arrested shall be delivered by the said Sheriff on the day named therein for the return of the writ to the Justice of the Peace, Police Justice or Justice of the Peace of the Traffic Court issuing said warrant. All costs and expenses incurred by the Sheriff in the execution of said warrant shall be assessed against and collected from the person so arrested by the Justice of the Peace, Police Justice or Justice of the Peace of the Traffic Court to whom said writ is returnable, and by him remitted to the Sheriff who shall have executed said warrant. But no person shall have the right to demand and receive a summons as hereinbefore provided in the following cases:

(a) In case of arrest for violation of Section 197 of this Article.

(b) In case the operator of said automobile cannot identify himself to the officer making the arrest as the owner or proper custodian of said automobile, either by means of his operator's card or other satisfactory identification to said officer.

(c) In any case where there is an accident resulting in personal injuries, which in the judgment of the officer making the arrest requires immediate detention of the operator of said automobile.

In all complaints of the violation of any of the provisions of this sub-title, except as provided in Section 206 hereof, the Justice of the Peace, committing Magistrate or Police Justice before whom the alleged offender is taken as aforesaid, shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine such complaint and impose the fine or sentence herein provided, but any person so convicted of any offense under this sub-title shall have the right to appeal from the judgment of such Justice of the Peace, committing Magistrate or Police Justice to the Criminal Court of Baltimore if convicted in Baltimore City, or court of criminal jurisdiction of any county in which he may be so convicted, and such court on such appeal shall hear the case de novo; provided, however, that within ten days from the date of judgment, a written order of appeal signed by the convicted person, or his attorney, be filed with the Justice of the Peace, committing Magistrate or Police Justice, by whom the judgment or sentence has been imposed. Upon appeal being prayed as aforesaid, it shall be the duty of the Magistrate to endorse upon the papers "Appeal Prayed", and transmit the same to the proper court as aforesaid. It shall not be necessary in such case for the Grand Jury to find either
