

Upon the expiration of the terms of the present Treasurers of the respective counties, the County Commissioners of said Counties are hereby directed to require the bonds of said Treasurers to be conditioned upon the payment to said Commission of the amount collected for it, in addition to the present requirements of said bonds.

The said Commission shall pay to the Treasurers of the respective Counties such an amount as the Treasurers and said Commission may agree upon as a reasonable charge for the services of said Treasurers, and for clerk hire for the added burdens put upon their offices by the duties herein prescribed, and in the event of a failure to agree the said Treasurer or Treasurers and said Commission shall refer the matter to the County Commissioners of the County where the disagreement arises and the said County Commissioners shall determine what in their judgment is a reasonable compensation annually for said Treasurer. The amount agreed upon or determined shall be paid to the respective Treasurers monthly by said Commission.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1939.

Approved May 3, 1939.
